

First MultiEthnic Indiana Conference
"Discovering and understanding our common ground"
April 22, 2008 -8:00am to 5:00pm

at

The Sheraton Hotel at Keystone at the Crossing, Indianapolis

The Indiana Multiethnic Conference will bring together a diverse group of 400 of Indiana's community leaders. It is the first event in what is envisioned as a long-term strategy to highlight the ethnic diversity in the state of Indiana and the welcoming spirit of Hoosiers.

The conference will feature:

- * Governor Mitch Daniels
- * Networking opportunities
- * Breakfast and lunch provided
- * Informative workshops: addressing unique concerns within multiethnic communities and offering successful initiatives.
- * Keynote speakers
- * Exhibitor forums
- * Panel discussions

"I hope that you will be a part of making this initiative a success and help Indiana grow in its cultural awareness."

Mitch Daniels

- Gov. Mitch Daniels

To receive the early bird rate of $60, sign up before April 8 (registration increases to $65 after this date). For more information about the conference visit www.indianamultiethnic.org or contact Carmen DeRusha, organizing committee facilitator, at Purdue Extension – Marion County at 317.275.9253.